

SMG Public Notice No. 2018 - 1054

Public contest for the selection of name of plaza on Taehwagwan-gil, on 100th anniversary of March 1919 Declaration of Independence

Seoul Metropolitan Government is planning to open a plaza by the end of February 2019 on Taehwagwan-gil, where 33 representatives of the country signed and read aloud the Declaration of Independence on March 1, 1919, on the occasion of the 100th anniversary of the event.

SMG encourages citizens to take part in the significant event as part of the effort to maintain the historic value of the place as the starting point of the March 1919 Independence Movement. The place will also be used to teach our future generations what their ancestors went through in order to regain the independence of Korea.

April 25, 2018

Mayor of Seoul Metropolitan City

<Outline of Project for the Formation of a Plaza Commemorating the 100th Anniversary of the March 1919 Independence Movement on Taehwagwan-gil>

- Location: the entire area of 29, Insa-dong 5-gil, Jongno-gu
- Background of promotion
 - A place with historic value as the starting point of the March 1919 Independence Movement but relatively undervalued
 - Though it is without a doubt a historic site filled with contemporary and modern history of Seoul, it is being used as an indistinctive side walk and road
 - Necessity to shed the light once again on Taehwagwan as the place of origin of the March 1919 Independence Movement on the occasion of its 100th Anniversary
 - The place where the country's leaders read the Declaration of Independence and started the independence movement that spread all over country and the world
